

Cookie and Tracking Technology Notice (Cookie Notice)

Rock Privacy and AI Governance Ltd trading as Rock Consultancy ("Rock Consultancy", "we", "us" or "our" in this Cookie Notice) respects your privacy and data protection rights.

Our use of cookies

Our website www.rockconsultancy.ie (Website) uses cookies and tracking technologies (cookies) to ensure you get the best experience. When you first visit our Website, we only set strictly necessary cookies on the web browser of your PC, telephone, tablet or other Internet-connected device (Device). These are cookies that are strictly necessary for the operation of our Website. We will only set non-necessary cookies on your Device where we have obtained your consent to do so. If you choose to consent to non-necessary cookies, you can change your consent preferences or withdraw your consent at any time by using our cookies banner.

Some cookies collect and process your personal data. We have more information about these cookies below and in our cookie banner and you can find further details about our processing activities in our Privacy Notice.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your Device when you visit a website. They help websites remember information about your visit.

Cookies can be "first party" which are cookies set by us, or "third-party" which are cookies that are placed on your Device by a third party when you visit our Website. Third-party cookies may be placed on your Device by a third party providing a service to us. For example, we use Google Analytics to help us understand how our Website is being used.

Cookie categories we use

Here we explain the different types of cookies used on our Website and which cookies do / do not require your consent:

Strictly necessary cookies: These are cookies that are strictly necessary for the operation of our Website. They enable basic website functionality and security features, and maintain your session while you navigate through our Website.

For this reason, we do not require your prior consent to place these cookies on your Device.

Functional cookies: These cookies enable us to personalise our content for you, including, where applicable, to remember choices you make (such as your user name, language or the region you are in) and provide enhanced, more personal features. We are required to obtain your prior consent to use these cookies on your Device.

Performance cookies: These cookies allow us to recognise visitors to our Website. These cookies also count the number of visitors to our Website and help us to understand how visitors use our Website. This information helps us to improve the way our Website works and determine the kind of content and services our visitors value the most. We are required to obtain your prior consent to use these cookies on your Device.

Social media cookies: These cookies are embedded in tools providing access to social networks from our Website. We are required to obtain your prior consent to use these cookies on your Device.
